SUPPLEMENT TO

The United Front Department of the Chinese Communist Party recently called a meeting of representatives of various non-Communist parties in the Government to stimulate popular support for the campaign for the suppression of counterrevolution. A communist spokesman said that counter-revolutionary elements had been discovered using the non-Communist parties in order to penetrate the Government and must be suppressed. Since these people are enemies of the people, they are not loyal elements of the United Front; their elimination should not disturb the solidarity of t e United Front, since the United Front was designed to destroy the common enemy and build a new China.
